

STUDY PROGRAMME	LANDSCAPE DESIGN, 653H93001
MODULE TITLE	Construction and Building of Small Architecture
NUMBER OF CREDITS	20
DURATION OF MODULE	Total: 540 hours (324 contact hours, 216 self-study hours)
MODULE PERIOD	Autumn Semester 10 cr. Spring Semester 10 cr.
MODULE CONTENT	Introduction of the historical development of architecture in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Development of the ability to analyse the attribution of buildings, small decorative and utilitarian objects, and simple recreational facilities to historical epochs, periods and architectural styles. Study of the legal framework of the construction and development of project documentation skills. Enhancement of practical architectural composition skills to prepare specific drawings of an architectural part of an original simple structure (building) project or simplified design of it. Introduction of simple modern building design and construction work of various structures. Focus on the variety of designs, optimization of the cooperation with various professional construction specialists. Development of the basics of building construction skills. Introduction of simple buildings construction technology and construction work safety.
ASSESSMENT	Examination
MODULE COORDINATOR	Rimantas Kondratas Vilniaus kolegija/University of Applied Sciences, Faculty of Agrotechnologies, Environment Design and Agribusiness Technologies Department Beržų 2A Str., Buivydiškės, LT-14160 Vilnius District, Lithuania Tel. +370 5 219 16 53, E-mail: krastotvarka@atf.viko.lt